Biographical Overview Of Presidents Of USA and MK-ULTRA Secrets

This story of the Presidencies of the United States of America turns on the story of the OSS and CIA and with that the story of the Vatican. Franklin Delanour Roosevelt betrayed the USA in more ways than just public marrying his cousin. Future president Franklin Delano Roosevelt weds his fifth cousin once removed, Eleanor Roosevelt, in New York on March 17, 1905.

Eleanor,born Anna Eleanor Roosevelt in New York in 1884, lost her mother Anna to diphtheria when she was eight. Her father Elliot, a brother of Theodore Roosevelt, died as a result of alcoholism when she was 10 years old. As a result, Eleanor was raised by the extended Roosevelt family and met her future husband for the first time when she was just two years old and he was four. They saw each other frequently at dances and parties and over the years became very close.

He and Joseph Kennedy Sr. went back to WW I and when the world had different values about out-of-wedlock children, protecting royal repuations, and even pro nazi movements worldwide. Joseph Kennedy Sr. and FDR worked together in the years of WW I and stayed close in power into WW II. For a while Joseph Kennedy Sr was Ambassador to Great Britain. Joseph Kennedy Sr. came back to the USA secretly to help enter the USA industrial might into WW II while Neutrality was the official policy. The official explanation for Kennedy Sr. coming back to the USA was because he publicly predicted England may fall to softening up by the Luftwaffe. So he helped build the P-51 Mustang in Inglewood California, Los Angeles County and worked with Howard Hughes and Robert Mahue and others keeping the CIA needs met.

FDR died just before the Atomic bombs dropped and Harry S. Truman was maneuvered into office, both Democrat party. At the end of WW II the OSS was disbanded and Truman created the CIA to replace it. Truman (at the War Department's request) continued service in the US Congress as oversight to military graft and waste and abuse in Defense spending. When he created the CIA all had a feeling the illegal methods of the OSS had no place in peace and had a distaste for it and the corruption now associated with the CIA. After the assassination of JFK Truman regretted the CIA had become so powerful and such an illegal force of business-front corruption throughout the world, companies of course like United Fruit Company and Zapata Oi and Belcher Oil giving capitalism a bad name during the Cold War.

Allen Dulles, James Jesus Angleton, Will Bill Donovan, and others like Donald Barr never gave up on wet division CIA operations and covert programs like arms dealing and other types of smuggling and profit based fronts. It is this latter power base todays elites still operate through wiht the same illegal techniques.

Contemporary Presidents and What They Have to Hide (or not)

- Pirates of the Caribbean: Bush Nixon Ford Rockefeller

Nelson Rockefeller, a former 14-year governor of New York and a dynastic scion of one of the nation's wealthiest families, was sworn in on this day in 1974 as the 41st vice president of the United States to President Gerald Ford upon Nixon resigning over Watergate. https://www.politico.com/story/2017/12/19/rockefeller-sworn-in-as-vice-president-dec-19-1974-297732

Nixon was selected by rich influencers (likely William Randolph Hearst) to be on the V.P. slot to Eisenhower. As V.P. he ran MK-ultra in the Carribean including plans in the late 1950's to overthrow Indonesia. On November 18, 1961 Micheal Rockefeller went missing in nearby Papua New Guinea the island sometimes part of Indonesia. Nixon with Pepsi-Cola executive Twombly using E. Howard Hunt and Chauncey Marvin Holt and the Giancana Outfit were thought to have killed JFK over Mk-Ultra plans. Impeached for the Watergate Breakin his V.P. Ford becomes Vice President. Ford was part of the Warren Commision and altered evidence to support the Magic Bullet Theory.

Michael Clark Rockefeller (May 18, 1938; disappeared November 19, 1961) was a member of the Rockefeller family. He was a son of New York Governor and later U.S. Vice President Nelson Rockefeller, a grandson of American financier John D. Rockefeller Jr., and a great-grandson of Standard Oil co-founder John D. Rockefeller Sr. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Michael_Rockefeller. President JFK did all he could to assist in the search and sent his condolences.

Phillip A. Twombly was Executive Vice President of Coca Cola for their Caribbean operations. Later he owned a bank in Fullerton, California. According to Chauncey Holt this bank was used to distribute CIA funds for covert operations. https://spartacus-educational.com/JFKtwombly.htm. Nixon was in Dallas at the time for a Coca-Cola bottling convenetion and Holt observes that in his tell-all book.

- 1961 1963 and 1968 When in 1960 General Eisenhower (ret.) was leaving the Presidency his Vice President Richard Nixon ran for the presidency and lost. In 1961 John F. Kennedy was sworn in. Like most including his Vice President Lyndon Johnson were part of the USA's policy of MK-Ultra post war Europe. In the early years of JFK the Cuban Missile Crisis, Bay of Pigs, and other the Troubles in Ireland heightened already serious differences between the CIA run Mafia groups and the Kennedy family. In 1963 LBJ gained the Presidency and in 1968 Senator Robert F. Kennedy was assasinated while running for President. During these years the "Secret Team" as Prouty called them, the Oil indusstry and others, were still at work and included George H.W. Bush and others.

- Jimmy and Billy Carter serve the nation. Billy Beer was a brand of beer promoted by Billy Carter Jimmy Carter Presidential elections were held in the United States on November 2, 1976. The Democratic ticket of former Georgia governor Jimmy Carter and Minnesota senator Walter Mondale narrowly defeated the Republican ticket of incumbent president Gerald Ford and Kansas senator Bob Dole I have written extensively about Jimmy Carter starting Skunk-works stealth, providing leadership at Three Mile Island (my my Uncle Happy real name Robert Donegan likely of Happy Valley once was an engineer, and seekig peace in the Middle East. Carter was elected in an era of reforms as Nixon and his dirty tricks and dirty deeds were partially revealed, CIA slush funds were becoming known and even reported on by Seymour Hirsch. "Follow the money" is a catchphrase popularized by the 1976 docudrama film All the President's Men, which suggests political corruption can be brought to light by examining money transfers between parties. For the film, screenwriter William Goldman attributed the phrase to Deep Throat, the informant who took part in revealing the Watergate scandal. Nixon using CREEP funds to fund the Watergate Break In was part of tyihg the break-in to Nixon. This is thought to be part of Nixon tryring to do damage control on the Kennedy assasination the Nixon had criminal liablity in.

BillyBeer.jpg https://www.facebook.com/groups/228800539437183/posts/1143751821275379/ Billy Beer was a brand of beer promoted by Billy Carter, the brother of then-President Jimmy Carter, in the late 1970s. Carter the "Penut Farmer to President story included nuclear submarine service as an officer and Three Mile Island nuclear disaster my uncle Happy Donegan (brother of Jim Donegan) was an engineer on.

- Ronald Reagan Ronald Wilson Reagan was an American politician and actor who served as the 40th president of the United States from 1981 to 1989. He was a member of the Republican Party and became an important figure in the American conservative movement. His presidency is known as the Reagan era. George H.W. Bush was his V.P. and Richard Helms the campaign manager. Barnes also recounted accompanying Connally to a September 1980 meeting in Houston in which Connally briefed William J. Casey, Reagan's campaign manager and a central figure in many versions of the "October Surprise" theory, on the outcome of the trip, with Casey specifically asking if "[the Iranians] were going to hold the hostages." It appears the GOP was desperate to win and the Arms For Hostages deal that allowed dramatic victory for Reagan Bush and the delay of such a victory to Carter was a rigged timing the the 1980 election. Since the 1980's the Bush family is accused of CIA covert activities including ties to the attempt on Ronald Reagan's life.

  Ronald Reagan was not Roman Catholic but Disciples of Christ from Chicago, Illinois. He led the Moral Majority with Jerry Falwell support including a pro-America large military stance trying to keep Latin America from being brought into the Iron Curtain. His Vice President George H.W. Bush is implicated in numerous illegal MK-Ultra activities and linked to the assassination attempt on Reagan.

- George H.W. Bush George Herbert Walker Bush was the 41st president of the United States, serving from 1989 to 1993. A member of the Republican Party, he also served as the 43rd vice president from 1981 to 1989 under Ronald Reagan and previously in various other federal positions. Having won the general election of 1988 he disappointed many right wingers and was not reelected.

Historians and biographers note that Zapata Oil was a CIA front company operationing under V.P. Richard Nixon in the 1950's. Col Fletcher Prouty who funneled military equipmemtn from Pentagon surplus sales to CIA operations believed The Barbara and the Houston used in the Bay of Pigs were Bush family name-sakes. Similarly George H.W. Bush is thought to have been involved in recruiting and training Brigade 2506. It also seems (if you believe me) he was part of the plan in 1958 for Indonesia. George H.W. Bush was photographed at Dealy Plaza near the Dal-Tex building along Dealy Plaza. George H.W. Bush 11th Director of Central Intelligence In office January 30, 1976 – January 20, 1977 President Gerald Ford Deputy. Preceded by William Colby.

Colby expressed fear he would be killed by the CIA for revealing CIA secrets and I have watched that on Youtube hims speaking. Many including Ted Gunderson believe Colby was murdered to stop these CIA leaks. Colby in Men of Honor his book about the CIA writes about being fired by Geral Ford. He Colby a devout Roman Catholic was hated by the CIA for leaks about the CIA as CIA scandals were breaking by Seymour Hersch and others. Colby publicly suspected Gari Caridora an investigator was killed to silence the investigation (an investigation that never produced much meaningful view into the facts but rather repeats of laughable alibis the CIA and State Department and FBI were using for the abuse and trafficking and even murder of children.

These are exceprts of my coments on materials I have gathered on this subject and use in The Great Treason and other of my books.

AUGUST 1978 LAW, GOVERNMENT & SOCIETY

The War Within the CIA retrieved from https://www.commentary.org/articles/edward-epstein-3/the-war-within-the-cia/ and copied or modified to here

In 1975 [with Ford in office], under the directorship of William Colby, the CIA found itself in a state of unprecedented crisis. Its entire role had undergone a dramatic change: from being a secret investigative agency it had become a target of public investigation, with no fewer than four government bodies scrutinizing its past activities. A presidential commission, chaired by Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller, was examining the CIA's domestic activities over a quarter of a century to ascertain whether it had violated its charter - or the Constitution; a Senate Committee, under the chairmanship of Frank Church, was investigating, among other things, alleged assassination attempts by the CIA against foreign leaders; a House Select Committee, headed by Otis G. Pike, was inquiring into other CIA operations; and the Department of Justice was sifting through a 693-page list of "questionable activities" of the CIA to determine whether any such activity merited indictment or legal action against past or present CIA officers.

[What we known now from President Nixon's own statements is he started the Presidential Commission under Rockefeller to undermine the other hearings. The Pike commision was based on a leaker from Army Intelligence about certain family's the Families of the Family Jewels program being watched through their lives and studied, and that Frank Church Committee was basicly a Roman Catholic inquisition of why the CIA was wrong. I believe Congressman Leo Ryan a Roman Catholic investing Family Jewels in Guyana run by the CIA was on BOTH the Pike commttee and Church Committee and went undercover in Folsom prison to see about CIA tests on prisoners.]

Within forty-eight hours of publication of the Times exposé on the CAI, Colby effectively confirmed the veracity of the story by announcing the resignation of James Jesus Angleton, the CIA's chief of counterintelligence, who had been mentioned in Hersh's report, as well as Angleton's three top deputies on the counterintelligence staff; and Colby hand-delivered a lengthy report of his own to Secretary of State Henry Kissinger. Though written in a less sensational tone than Hersh's exposé, this report clearly substantiated the fact that the counterintelligence staff as well as other elements of the CIA had been involved in questionable and possibly illegal activities. Colby told Kissinger that he had cleansed his report of agents' names and secret operations so that the President could make it available to the press. Colby also appended to the report information Hersh had not divulged, including a list of alleged assassination attempts by the CIA. Confronted with this document, President Ford had little choice but to initiate an investigation of the CIA. - The War Within the CIA

HONORABLE MEN My Life in the CIA by William Colby

Ordinarily, on being summoned to see the President, I would ask what for, so I could bone up on whatever topic was to be the subject of discussion. But this time, I didn't. Marsh, obviously, was eager to get back to sleep and I was tired too, anxious to get home and to bed myself. And be- sides I could make a pretty fair guess as to what it was prob- ably about. The previous day, Saturday, the press had bro- ken a story revealing that the CIA had covertly been funneling aid to Kurdish rebels in Iraq. We had talked of these leaks at the usual meeting in the White House base- ment all that morning. So it was more than likely that the President was assembling a group of aides to discuss how leaks of sensitive material like this could be prevented. All the usual people would be there, I figured-Scowcroft; Buchen;, someone from the Pentagon, possibly Schlesinger himself; Mike Duval; probably Don Rumsfeld; and Marsh and I.

But they weren't. Aside from the Secret Service on duty at the side door, the West Wing of the White House at seven forty-five that Sunday morning was deserted. The anteroom to the Oval Office was empty, until Marsh came in a couple of moments after I arrived. Apparently my guess at what this was all about was wrong. Still, I took a crack at it. 'Boy, that Kurdish story, that's some fine mess, isn't it, Jack?" I said. Marsh nodded absently. "I'd bet anything that it came from the House Committee," I went on. Nlarsh shrugged and looked away, clearly uninterested in pursuing the subject. I made a few more desultory remarks and then, puzzled, let it drop. We stood around in a rather awkward silence.

Promptly at eight President Ford showed up. He came from the White House residence along the enclosed porch, passed the Rose Garden and went directly into the Oval Office without seeing us. He was accompanied by two Secret Service men. After a few moments, one of then invited us in.

Ford was seated behind the huge, handsome Presidential desk, looking a bit grim and, as he was to fly to Florida to meet with Sadat later in the morning, he had a thick black briefing book on the Middle East situation in front of him. He set it aside as soon as Nlarsh and I walked in. I had seen the President regularly in the past year, but ours could not in any way be characterized as a personal relationship. Ford, while always cordial, dealt with me in a fairly formal manner. He did not stand up now; we didn't shake hands. I said "Good morning, Mr. President. Jack said you wanted to see me."

"Yes," he replied, indicating that I should take a seat in the straight armchair in front of the desk. ' 'We are going to do some reorganizing of the national-security structure. He need not have said another word. From that sentence I realized immediately why I had been summoned: I was about to be fired as the Director of Central Intelligence. Ford did not put it quite so bluntly.

In the time honored political tradition with sticky things of this sort, he said he wanted me to take a new job, as Ambassador to NATO. He then sketched the reorganization-which is to say, the sweeping personnel changes-he had in mind. It was what later was to be dubbed the Halloween Massacre, and it in- eluded the sacking of Jim Schlesinger as Secretary of De- fense and Nelson Rockefeller's withdrawal as Ford's run- the straight armchair in front of the desk. "We are going to do some reorganizing of the national-security structure.'

He then sketched the reorganization-which is to say, the sweeping personnel changes-he had in mind. It was what later was to be dubbed the Halloween Massacre, and it included the sacking of Jim Schlesinger as Secretary of Defense and Nelson Rockefeller's withdrawal as Ford's running mate on the 1976 GOP ticket. At the time, however, Ford didn't mention to me what was in store for Schlesinger, for the perfectly good reason that he hadn't yet mentioned it to him. But he did tell me that, under his re-organizational scheme, Henry Kissinger would give up his post as National Security Assistant to the President and move over exclusively to the State Department; that Brent Scowcroft would take over Kissinger's role as Presidential Assistant. And he told me that George Bush was coming back from China to replace me as the new CIA chief. I said he was a good choice, and I meant it. Ford was quick to try to reassure me. I needn't be concerned.

[Colby wonders with Ford about a CIA director being accepted by the UN]

[T] the appointment [to NATO] would be as the President's personal representative and thus didn't need the approval of the NATO countries.

"l realize that, Mr. President," I said; "nevertheless, I really need to think about it and talk to my wife about it." "All right," Ford said. "Let us know your decision as soon as possible." "Yes, sir, I will. I'll get in touch with Jack later in the morning," I said.

He said the changes would be formally announced on Monday and asked me to keep them to myself until then. I agreed.

There was nothing further to say. I stood up. The meeting was over. It had lasted about fifteen minutes. And in those fifteen minutes my thirty-year career as an intelligence officer had been brought abruptly to an end.

I should have been shattered, but my old discipline of thinking of the next step ahead took over. I wanted to catch Barbara, who would be leaving home in time to make a nine o'clock Mass across town. We were going to have to figure out what we should do about the NATO job offer. Marsh, at my elbow as we left the Oval Office, anxiously asked, "You are going to take it, aren't you?" revealing just how important it was that the "reorganization" go without a hitch, that all the players in it be happily in place before it was officially announced to the press. But I suspected even then that I wasn't going to oblige. (Neither was Schlesinger, I later discovered; he turned down Ford's offer to be Chairman of the Export-Import Bank on the spot, and rather angrily.)

- Lord Governors Edward, Albert, and Barrack Obama Jr. Often with the birthdays August 4 (the Queen Mother) February 20 or November 18, these are province Governors in line to become the Sovereign. Edward as a Royal Peer after his abdication fought in military affairs in France in until France fefl in WWII, and later as a Royal Peer was placed as Governor of Bermuda. During that time as Royal Peer he was know to associate with others connected to the CIA, Howard Hughes, and other in the Desert Inn area. I also believe as part of espionage work with the CIA as part of Bermuda Dunes, the British Bermuda Islands and CIA Sand Dunes covert activities group. SOme like Nixon, Bush, and others fancy themselves royalty.

- Billy Bob otherwise known as "Bubba" 1993-2001 William Jefferson Clinton is an American politician and lawyer who was the 42nd president of the United States from 1993 to 2001. A member of the Democratic Party, he previously served as the attorney general of Arkansas from 1977 to 1979 and as the governor of Arkansas from 1979 to 1981, and again from 1983 to 1992. He and his wife Hillary get much of the blame for "Arkancide" but the GOP is more behind it, the Rockefeller Republicans. THe oil industry and Standard Oil in Arkansas has much to hide. The Clinton family is useful to study as an example of families and the White house. Chelsea got into politics, Hillary did on health care and later ran for President seeking the DNC nomination opposing Barrack Obama Jr. It was in fact the Clinton's who were very moderate and closely resembled the Carter administration in centrist politics.

  For the purpose of understanding Jen Moore relayed information this is very important. The campaign machine Bill Clinton created went to Hillary For President. When Hillary conceded to Barrack Obama Jr. for the general election the Hillary camp joined with the Obama camp. This included Democracy Partners tied to illegal politically motivated Criminal Syndicalism and the use of thugs and mentally ill organized by high ranking officials.

  Under Barrack Obama Jr. Born: August 4, 1961 2009 to 2017 (succeeding George W. Bush 2001-2009) and is about to leave the white-house in 2015 The DNC Machine including lect Hillary to POTUS (who had tried to be the DNC candidate in 2008) HRCGetsTheDPrep.png is Project Veritas on wide-ranging assertions the Clinton Campaign and other campaigns for elected offices used Democracy Partners to "conflict engage" Trump supporters. Democracy Partners was under the assets-control of the titular head the Democrat Party with (as head) President Obama. Getting DNC tickets elected nationally and in the states was a full project. Bill Clinton was not seeking any offices. Some of this is short hand and while certainly part of this is true the history on it is very complex. Maya Harris is the sister of Kamala Harris and Maya Harris is married to a lawyer for Morison and Forester law firm I had contacted several times to represent me but turned me down. Some of the Democrat Party operatives were in Hillary for President, some of that went into Obama For President, some originated in Bill Clinton For President, some were very long term DNC operatives and lawyers long tied to the Democrat Party Representatives, Senators, Gubernatorial Candidates, and others. These the Jen Moore named were James Alifontis, John Podesta, and others. James Alefantis. Alefantis is openly gay. He formerly dated David Brock, the CEO of Media Matters for America. Maya Harris was at the Comet Ping Pong meeting called Pizza political planning session she asserted had been tied to he slander of purporting food orders were attempts to purchase the exploitation of children through food orders. Pizzagate Jen Moore and I assert is those staging events under Color of Law that are part of smearing the normal life at at least Edward Paul Donegan and perhaps others. The Slander I and Jen Moore assert is politically motives as many COINTELPRO dirty tricks are.

The public will clearly want a person attracted to minors in public places driven out of public places and the public may bully or threaten or conspire against a person so slandered in a lynch mob way. It also is hard to get lawyers, file other cases with judges, etc., if the Federal Government asserts a child porn case is underway and can not be interrupted or disclosed.

Long Past Presidents and What They Have to Hide (or not)

- Eisnehower-Nixon Under Nixon the assassination program "Executive Action" flourished with the WWII allies also called the NWO or Cabal by some. JFK did not like the scheme including for Indonesia and began a purge of the CIA. The purge did not work and JFK was assassinated. Indonesia 1958: Nixon, the CIA, and the Secret War By L. Fletcher Prouty. Central Intelligence Operation for Indonesia he (Prouty himself a friend fo the Donegan's and as a chld I knew) was a part of.

- Lyndon Johnson. According to his biographer (and former White House Staffer) Doris Kearns Goodwin, he [later] grew out his hair in a statement of solidarity with the anti-war movement. After leaving office, LBJ apparently came to bitterly regret the role he and McNamara played in Vietnam, and he thought Nixon and Kissinger were even worse. Automatic_Memory212 He like Richard Nixon had served during WWII in the Pacific Ilsands area of Indonesia. also known as LBJ, was the 36th president of the United States, serving from 1963 to 1969. He became president after the assassination of John F. Kennedy, under whom he had served as the 37th vice president from 1961 to 1963. A Southern Democrat, Johnson previously represented Texas in Congress for over 23 years, first as a U.S. representative from 1937 to 1949, and then as a U.S. senator from 1949 to 1961.Prescott Sheldon Bush Sr. was an American banker and Republican Party politician. After working as a Wall Street executive investment banker, he represented Connecticut in the United States Senate from 1952 to 1963. During he V.P. Nixon years and attempts to re-colonize the Pacific with Allies leangin governments President LBJ escalated US involvement in the Indonesia civil war Prouty said Nixon began in 1958. the following appeared in the August, 1976 issue of Gallery magazine: Indonesia 1958: Nixon, the CIA, and the Secret War By L. Fletcher Prouty. Hey Hey LBJ that long hair if pulled up in a tail could be like the sting of a Scorpion, the Scorpio is the November Zodiac sign and Kennedy as shot in November. Was LBJ riff-raff from Texas?

- John F. Kennedy The Irish immgrant family of the Kennedy's engaged in acts like boycotting the Queen of England speaking to the US COngress. Constant ties to Ireland remain in the surviving Kennedy family Jen Moore will explaing how all these deep poticias are tryint to cover-up the Ml-Ultra hit on JFK and cover up sinces and Jen More says the Donegan family my family is tied to that CIA OSS history and I say tied to the CIA manufacture of Barrack Obama Jr. as as sleepe agent.

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. a Rockefeller Republican tied operative who ran as the bottom half of the Nixon Lodge Presidential ticket against Kennedy Johnson. He had a history supporting the assassination of Deim of Vietman, the Catholic president of Vietnam and some insubordination to JFK and the CIA war in Indochina, the Pacific Ocean and Indian Ocean are below the Chinese and India soutward reaching peninsulas. General Edward Lansdale was also part of these efforts.

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. (July 5, 1902 – February 27, 1985) was an American diplomat and politician who represented Massachusetts in the United States Senate and served as United States Ambassador to the United Nations in the administration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. In 1960, he was the Republican nominee for Vice President on a ticket with Richard Nixon, who had served two terms as Eisenhower's vice president. The Republican ticket narrowly lost to Democrats John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson; Lodge later served as a diplomat in the administrations of Kennedy, Johnson, Nixon, and Gerald Ford. Lodge was a presidential contender in the 1964 primary campaign.

Born in Nahant, Massachusetts, Lodge was the grandson of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and the great-grandson of Secretary of State Frederick Theodore Frelinghuysen. After graduating from Harvard University, Lodge won election to the Massachusetts House of Representatives. He defeated Democratic governor James Michael Curley in 1936 to represent Massachusetts in the United States Senate. He resigned from the Senate in 1944 to serve in Italy and France during World War II. Lodge remained in the Army Reserve after the war and eventually rose to the rank of major general. In 1946, Lodge defeated incumbent Democratic Senator David I. Walsh to return to the Senate.

He led the Draft Eisenhower movement before the 1952 election and managed Eisenhower's successful campaign for the Republican presidential nomination at the 1952 Republican National Convention. Eisenhower defeated Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson II in the general election, but Lodge lost his own re-election campaign to then-Congressman Kennedy. Lodge was named as ambassador to the United Nations in 1953 and became a member of Eisenhower's Cabinet. Vice President Nixon chose Lodge as his running mate in the 1960 presidential election, but the Republican ticket lost the close election.

In 1963, the now-President Kennedy appointed Lodge to the position of Ambassador to South Vietnam, where Lodge supported the 1963 South Vietnamese coup. In 1964, Lodge won by a plurality a number of that year's party presidential primaries and caucuses on the strength of his name, reputation, and respect among many voters, though the nomination went to Barry Goldwater. This effort was encouraged and directed by a low-budget but high-impact grassroots campaign by academic and political amateurs. He continued to represent the United States in various countries under Presidents Johnson, Nixon, and Ford. Lodge led the U.S. delegation that signed the Paris Peace Accords with North Vietnam, leading to the end of the Vietnam War. He died in Beverly, Massachusetts, in 1985. - Wikipedia

While Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. and John F. Kennedy were political rivals, there's no widely documented incident of Lodge Jr. openly disobeying JFK as president. Lodge served as the U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations under JFK, and their relationship, while not always harmonious, was marked by political competition and the complexities of the Cold War. - Google AI

Ngô Đình Diệm was a South Vietnamese politician who was the final prime minister of the State of Vietnam and later the first president of South Vietnam from 1955 until his capture and assassination during the CIA-backed 1963 coup d'état. Wikipedia

Google AI Overview: While JFK approved Cable 243, which authorized the exploration of coup options against Diem, he did not directly approve the assassination of Diệm and his brother Nhu. Kennedy later expressed regret and blamed himself for the assassination, which was carried out by Diệm's army, according to Wikipedia. The US embassy in Saigon also admitted that the US was aware of the coup and its plans.

DAVID ELLIOTT BELL

David Elliott Bell (January 19, 1919 - September 6, 2000) was a director of the United States' Office of Management and Budget (OMB) from January 22, 1961, until December 20, 1962, under President John F. Kennedy. Kennedy named him administrator of the US Agency for International Development (USAID) in late 1962. He left government service in 1966 to become the Executive Vice President of the Ford Foundation.

At the end of 1962, President Kennedy asked Bell to become the new Administrator of the Agency for International Development (USAID), created in response to the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961.

MAXWELL D. TAYLOR

Maxwell Davenport Taylor (August 26, 1901 - April 19, 1987) was a senior United States Army officer and diplomat of the mid-20th century.

A controversial figure, Taylor was considered, along with Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara, to have played a major role during the early days of the Vietnam War in the decision to deploy US combat troops to Vietnam and to escalate the conflict more generally.

Both President Kennedy and his brother, Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, had immense regard for Taylor, whom they saw as a man of unquestionable integrity, sincerity, intelligence, and diplomacy. [citation needed] The Cuba Study Group met for six weeks from April to May 1961 to perform an "autopsy" on the disastrous events surrounding the Bay of Pigs Invasion. In the course of their work together, Taylor developed a deep regard and a personal affection for Robert F. Kennedy, a friendship that was wholly mutual and which remained firm until RFK's assassination in 1968.

ADMIRAL HARRY DONALD FELT

Admiral Harry Donald Felt (June 21, 1902 - February 25, 1992) was an aviator in the United States Navy who led U.S. carrier strikes during World War II and later served as commander in chief of Pacific Command (CINCPAC) from 1958 to 1964.

Promoted to vice admiral in 1956, Felt commanded the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean for six months before the new chief of naval operations, Arleigh Burke, tapped his former assistant to be his vice chief, a promotion that leapfrogged Felt over a score of senior admirals and carried the rank of full admiral. As vice chief of naval operations,

GENERAL PAUL D. HARKINS

Paul Donal Harkins (May 15, 1904 - August 21, 1984) was a career officer in the United States Army and attained the rank of general. He is most notable for having served during World War II as deputy chief of staff for operations in George S. Patton Jr.'s commands, and as the first Military Assistance Command, Vietnam (MACV) commander, a post he held from 1962 to 1964.

HENRY CABOT LODGE

Henry Cabot Lodge (May 12, 1850 - November 9, 1924) was an American Republican politician, historian, and statesman from Massachusetts.After World War I, Lodge became Chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the leader of the Senate Republicans.he led the opposition to Wilson's Treaty of Versailles, proposing 14 reservations to the treaty.[3] His strongest objection was to the requirement that all nations repel aggression, fearing that this would erode congressional powers and erode American sovereignty; those objections had a major role in producing the veto power of the United Nations Security Council. Lodge remained in the Senate until his death in 1924.

Hold on a sec.,

On June 27, 1963, Kennedy named Lodge as his ambassador to South Vietnam. Lodge had visited Vietnam as a newsman in the 1930s, and though he spoke no Vietnamese, he was fluent in French, a language widely used by the South Vietnamese elite.

1952 Senate campaign

In the fall of 1952, Lodge found himself fighting in a tight race for re-election with John F. Kennedy, then a U.S. Representative. His efforts in helping Eisenhower caused Lodge to neglect his own campaign. In addition, some of Taft's supporters in Massachusetts defected from Lodge to the Kennedy campaign out of anger over Lodge's support of Eisenhower. In November 1952 Lodge was defeated by Kennedy; Lodge received 48.5% of the vote to Kennedy's 51.5%. This was the second of three Senate elections contested between a member of the Republican Lodge family and a member of the Democratic Fitzgerald-Kennedy clan, after the 1916 election between Lodge's and Kennedy's grandfathers and before the 1962 special election between Lodge's son and Kennedy's younger brother Ted.

Kennedy was congratulated for his victory by his dominating father, Joseph Kennedy Sr, saying at long last an Irish Catholic had humbled a scion of the WASP Boston Brahmin elite, saying that this was the most satisfying of all his son's electoral victories. It was neither the first nor the last time a Lodge faced a Kennedy in a Massachusetts election.

Ambassador to the United Nations (1953-1960)

Lodge was named U.S. ambassador to the United Nations by President Eisenhower in February 1953, with his office elevated to Cabinet-level rank. In contrast to his grandfather (who had been a principal opponent of the UN's predecessor, the League of Nations), Lodge was supportive of the UN as an institution for promoting peace.

Lodge was the only person of the seven member policy making body to stay at the Royal Hawaiian. Others slept in military quarters.

This group of high level political and military policymakers had just decided to step up military operations against communist insurgents in Vietnam. This decision was in direct conflict with President Kennedy's announced intention of October 1963 to withdraw 1000 U. S. military personnel from South Vietnam reducing the U. S. troop strength there to approximately 14,500.

In early June of 1963, President Kennedy required McNam:ua and Taylor to announce from the steps …

FORGIVE MY GRIEF IV p. 201

… of the White House that all American forces would be withdrawn from Vietnam by 1965. This statement was in direct opposition with the thrust of the Pentagon and CIA toward deeper involvement in the Vietnam war.

The eulogy for . President Kennedy had just been conducted in, the .. Capitol Rotunda when the new President, Johnson,_ met with Lodge and instructed him to return .. to Vietnam and inform the Saigon government that the U. S. was now going to give South Vietnam strong military support.

Dunham and Obama Sr. were married on the Hawaiian island of Maui on February 2_ , 1961.

On August 4, 1961, at the age of 18, Dunham gave birth to her first child, Barack Obama Jr., in Honolulu. Friends in the state of Washington recall her visiting with her month-old baby in 1961.

When Obama Sr. graduated from the University of Hawaii in June 1962, he left for Cambridge, Massachusetts, where he began graduate study at Harvard University in fall 1962.

Dunham returned to Honolulu and resumed her undergraduate education at the University of Hawaii with the spring semester in January 1963. During this time, her parents (in the city of Seattle state of Washington USA) helped her having physical custody to raise the young Barack. Dunham filed for divorce in January 1964, which Obama Sr. did not contest.[Nonie Chafin bough and owned an apartment at this time in Seattle, a friend of the Donegan family.]

For the purposes of 1962-1963 the Obama Jr. family of origin was across the USA. In 1964 Obama Jr, Madelyn Dunham, and Soetero were ready for Indonesia leaving from Hawaii.

On August 21, 1959, Hawaii became the 50th state to be admitted into the Union. Dunham's parents sought business opportunities in the new state, and after graduating from high school in 1960, Dunham and her family moved to Honolulu. Dunham enrolled at the University of Hawaii at Mānoa. [She is said to have met Barrack Obama Sr there.]

While attending a Russian language class, Dunham met Barack Obama Sr., the school's first African student. At the age of 23, Obama Sr. had come to Hawaii to pursue his education, leaving behind a pregnant wife, Kezia, and their infant son in his home town of Nyang'oma Kogelo in Kenya. Dunham and Obama Sr. were married on the Hawaiian island of Maui on February 2, 1961, despite parental opposition from both families. Dunham was three months pregnant.

[It is a little tricky the math on this but Ed Donegan asserts someone like Holt changed February 20 (when Donegan was fertalized James and Glorian test tube) with February 2. Ed was born 9 months after February 20 on November 18 1961. Ed asserts they lied and that the three months already pregant pushed the fertilization far enough back into 1960 for an August 4 1961 birthdate to be claimed. Ed Donegan asserts Dean Rusk since 1926 North Carolina had been part of the underground railroad of Glorian and thought she would make a good DNA donor for Obama Jr who passed all his preschool tests and was readied for Indonesia, the preschoo news coming at 2 years old, November 19 1961 in Hawaii Ann Dunham also being prepped for Indonesia with a new CIA marriage.

Ed Donegan assert Dulles and others may have promised Indonesia Gold mining profits to the mob IF the mob got JFK out of the way, JFK wanting to cancel regime change.

Obama was born on August 4, 1961, at Kapiolani Medical Center for Women and Children in Honolulu, Hawaii. He is the only president born outside the contiguous 48 states. He was born to an American mother and a Kenyan father. His mother, Ann Dunham (1942-1995), was born in Wichita, Kansas and was of English, Welsh, German, Swiss, and Irish descent. In 2007 it was discovered her great-great-grandfather Falmouth Kearney emigrated from the village of Moneygall, Ireland to the US in 1850.[11] In July 2012, Ancestry.com found a strong likelihood that Dunham was descended from John Punch, an enslaved African man who lived in the Colony of Virginia during the seventeenth century. Obama's father, Barack Obama Sr. (1934-1982), was a married Luo Kenyan from Nyang'oma Kogelo. His last name, Obama, was derived from his Luo descent.[20] Obama's parents met in 1960 in a Russian language class at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, where his father was a foreign student on a scholarship. The couple married in Wailuku, Hawaii, on February 2, 1961, six months before Obama was born.

In late August 1961, a few weeks after he was born, Barack and his mother moved to the University of Washington in Seattle, where they lived for a year. During that time, Barack's father completed his undergraduate degree in economics in Hawaii, graduating in June 1962. He left to attend graduate school on a scholarship at Harvard University, where he earned an M.A. in economics. Obama's parents Madeylun Payne Dunham, CIA Hawaii, Barrack Obama Sr, CIA Kenya) divorced in March 1964.

Alleged mother of Barrack Obama Jr. Stanley Ann Dunham (November 29, 1942 - November 7, 1995) was an American anthropologist (and daughter of CIA Madelyn Paine Durham living in Hawaii formerly of Kansas bomber factory wife of CIA caught Stanley Dunham) who specialized in the economic anthropology and rural development of Indonesia. She was the mother of Barack Obama, the 44th president of the United States. Dunham was known as Stanley Ann Dunham through high school, then as Ann Dunham, Ann Obama, Ann Soetoro, a.k.a. Ann Sutoro, and resumed her maiden name, Ann Dunham, later in life.

JFK VS. ALLEN DULLES. BATTLEGROUND INDONESIA by Greg Poultrain

On April 10, 1961, in a long conversation with Dean Rusk, Dutch Foreign Minister Luns said that he was going to "talk to Hammarskjöld about this whole problem-"26.1 He wanted the United Nations to send a visiting mission to West New Guinea. Kennedy, four hours earlier, had informed Luns that he had been in touch with Hammarskjöld since 1958 "and a number Of times since" but gave no details of the more recent meetings. Luns obviously had heard whispers that JFK and the UN secretary general had been discussing the future of the Dutch territory. In the opinion of the UN secretary general, JFK explained, only a bona fide trusteeship arrangement would be approved. Without mentioning gold, of course, Luns wanted the Dutch presence to continue as part of a trusteeship, but this would not have been bona fide in UN terms.…

Chapter 6 1962-63

JFK, New Guinea, Malaysian Confrontation old War tension was rising. President Eisenhower closed the US Embassy in Havana, January 3, 1961, the same day that General Nasution in Moscow was discussing the Soviet arms purchase that led to Kennedy's intervention in the Dutch-Indonesian dispute. DCI Dulles was personally involved in the Cold War crises brewing in both locations, Cuba and Indonesia. In Moscow, the list was impressive: TU-16 long-range bombers, fighter planes, motor torpedo boats, submarines, and warships, including a Skoryi-class cruiser transferred from the Soviet Navy. They were to end Dutch sovereignty Of the New Guinea territory. Sukarno claimed the long-range bombers had nuclear capability. The willingness Of the United States to support their NATO ally in a colonial outpost was now in the spotlight.

A National Intelligence Estimate was prepared on this arms deal by Major General Edward G. Lansdale (secretary of Defense deputy assistant for Special Operations) and was approved by the US Intelligence Board March 7. Lansdale was a close associate of Allen Dulles who was head of the Board. Lansdale wrote: The Soviet effort to capture Sukarno and Indonesia through personal diplomacy and military and economic assistance has reached substantial proportions and appears to be making significant progress. Indonesia is looking to the Communist Bloc for important contributions to its economic

While Nasution's pro-US stance was conveyed in confidence to Jones and Rusk in March 1961, it probably came also to the notice Of the CIA, judging by the careful wording in the briefing prepared for Kennedy prior to Sukarno's visit in April: "We are awaiting more conclusive data before associating ourselves fully with Professor Guy Pauker's thesis that the Moscow talks may have forced General Nasution into a de facto alliance with the Communist Party."

If the CIA already knew that Kennedy had been informed about Nasution, then the CIA briefing would have lost credibility altogether had it stood by Pauker's thesis. The briefing, titled "Indonesian Perspectives" had direct input from Allen Dulles but was signed off by Richard Bissell, CIA deputy director for plans. (His predecessor was Frank Wisner). Part analysis and part intelligence estimate, the briefing was clearly anti-Sukarno and advised Kennedy against placing any trust in the Indonesian president.

Robert Komer, from the National Security Council, disagreed with much of the briefing and bluntly expressed his opinion to the president's assistant for National Security Affairs, McGeorge Bundy: "The thesis is that Sukarno, the devil incarnate, will take Indonesia so far down the road as to make it a pushover for the PKI in (the) predictable future." For Kennedy's best option, Komer said that he preferred the same as Jones was recommending, that is, shifting to a "pro-Indonesian policy on West Irian plus more 'political' The Moscow arms deal forced Washington to rethink its role Of backing up the Dutch in the event Of Indonesian aggression. Australian support for a continued Dutch presence compounded Kennedy's dilemma because of ANZUS, the Australian-New Zealand-US alliance. Furthermore, if the United States supported the Dutch, the prospect of a majority of members of the United Nations decrying the United States as procolonialist placed another restriction on Washington's choice in the sovereignty dispute. Pauker warned that success in West Irian might convince the army to accept the PKI as a full partner, but this was implicitly contradicted by Nasution's stance.

On 17 April 2012, President Barack Obama nominated Flynn to be the 18th director of the Defense Intelligence Agency. Flynn took command of the DIA in July 2012. In office January 23, 2015 – October 3, 2017 Vincent Stewart, first Black director of the DIA, dies at 64. President Barack Obama.

It was a time of transition for the DIA, five times the size of the CIA an the home of PsyOps around the world including GangStalks and other techniques up to assassinations, poisoinings, planted news stories, etc.,

In September 2011, Flynn was promoted to Lieutenant General and assigned as assistant director of national intelligence in the Office of the Director of National Intelligence. On 17 April 2012, President Barack Obama nominated Flynn to be the 18th director of the Defense Intelligence Agency. Flynn took command of the DIA in July 2012.

On 30 April 2014, Flynn announced his retirement effective later that year, about a year earlier than he had been scheduled to leave his position. He was reportedly effectively forced out of the DIA after clashing with superiors over his allegedly chaotic management style and vision for the agency.

In a private e-mail that was leaked online, Colin Powell said he had heard in the DIA (apparently from later DIA director Vincent R. Stewart) that Flynn was fired because he was "abusive with staff, didn't listen, worked against policy, bad management, etc." According to The New York Times, Flynn exhibited a loose relationship with the truth, leading his subordinates to refer to Flynn's repeated dubious assertions as "Flynn facts".

Flynn and Jen Moore were allied in trying to stop a classified, illegal, and racketeering scheme called Pizza-gate. They both (Moore and Flynn) had spoken positively of each other. It was the DIA ties that may have been the trouble spot for Robyn Gritz named by Jen More as next of kin during Jen Moore's classified work on the Donegan family and the fraud that orders for pizza were secretly a desire to exploit under-age girls The alleged Pizzagate scheme included the officials Jen More named. The fliers for the meeting still available name Maya Harris sister of Kamala Harris as a political consultant headliner and I do not know of her husband Tony West of Morrison Foerster that campaigned for Obama Jr. was present. My brother Tom Donegan had high level contacts in the Democrat

Party including possible V.P. selection Tim Kaine into his home in the Clarendon neighborhood of Arlington County Virginia, East District of Virginia . Jen More was in this area whistle-blowing a GangStalk team creating frauds and using organ trafficking and Jessica Aber was the US Attoreny at that time recently found dead. Man believe including me that this also ties to Jeffery Epstein and Willia Barr (son of William Barr) cover-up of his death in federal prison. MayaHarrisAlefantisPodesta.jpeg is that meeting flyer for Sundat, April 10, 2016. I have had the same death threats reporting this others including Jen Moore have received.

2011 to 2015 Even the very well-connected #Killary the #Arnancider was suprised to learn what #WETWORKS was

She and her machine had dropped out of the race for President of the USA in 2007 and her supporters and staff joined with Obama Jr. For President. Alefontis, Toni West and Maya Harris, Podesta, Holder, and many others were now rising into power and Whitehouse levle planning and operations. Maya Harris the sister of Kamla Harris (a rising star in California and close friend of Obama Jr. and her sister Maya married to Obama For President operative Tony West were the new power brokers as Obama JR was leaving the Whitehouse 2016 General Election that elected Donald Trump.

December 2007: A tightening contest

By early December 2007, the Democrat Party race between Hillary Clinton and Obama had tightened up, especially in the early caucus and primary states of Iowa, New Hampshire, and South Carolina. With real voting less than a month away, Clinton brought into Iowa her daughter Chelsea and a very rare campaign appearance from her 88-year-old mother Dorothy Rodham. Veteran political observers such as Bloomberg News' Al Hunt reported that "things are tense in Hillaryland these days," that the camps of Clinton and her husband were at odds, and that the campaign's "plan A" of being the dominating, inevitable, establishment candidate was at risk of failing.

On June 7, 2008, in a speech before her gathered supporters at the National Building Museum in Washington, D.C., Clinton officially announced that she was suspending her campaign and was fully endorsing Barack Obama. Clinton said:

> The way to continue our fight now to accomplish the goals for which we stand is to take our energy, our passion, our strength and do all we can to help elect Barack Obama the next President of the United States. Today, as I suspend my campaign, I congratulate him on the victory he has won and the extraordinary race he has run. I endorse him, and throw my full support behind him. And I ask all of you to join me in working as hard for Barack Obama as you have for me.

The death of Supreme Court Associate Justice Antonin Scalia on Saturday has further complicated Abigail Fisher v. University of Texas, which could decide the fate of affirmative action in college admissions. The Supreme Court will now come to a decision with only seven members, since Associate Justice Elena Kagan recused herself from the case, or delay the decision until Scalia's replacement has been appointed.

Criminal Syndicalism in High Level Government Mirrors High Risk Behaviors

High-risk behaviors are actions that significantly increase the likelihood of negative health outcomes, injuries, or social problems. These behaviors are often associated with substance abuse, risky sexual practices, violence, and unhealthy lifestyles. They can include Criminal Activity: This includes behaviors like stealing, vandalism, trespassing, and other illegal activities, Risky Sexual Behaviors: This encompasses unprotected sex, multiple sexual partners, and engaging in sex without protection. - AI I add and political and religious activities

A "High Value" target of a profiteering criminal syndicate may target book rights, politcal works, the study and cultural apropriation of some other group the criminl aspires to, general with the crmiminal syndicate have a self-gain of some type in mind to be acccopmlished through risky criminal actvities. Most of my life has been made the target of crime by aspirants who have a desire to appropriate what they aspire to.

If you to a link I am going to provide here grouped now together originally from One American News Network and YouTube Sites and archives you will see reporting that Jen Moore was found dead in retaliation for. In this sequence of videos on this playlist on YouTube you will see Jen Moore and I are documenting the fraud ring following me Edward Donegan around bullying me, slandering me, and seeing my removal from homes and offices the dishonest frauds incite with. Whistle-blowing it is fraud tied to illegal actions of high ranking officials and tied to secret of JFK, the McMartin School, Franklin Nebraska and today's elite white house level figures involved in smears and sabotage is shown in sequence. This includes my genome and life experiences from a unique life history. Toxifying that value in me with slander is part of putting it into the legal system by excuse making.

Known for	Filing lawsuits challenging President Obama's eligibility to serve as President of the United States

Orly Taitz (Hebrew: אורלי טייץ; born August 30, 1960) is an Israeli-American political conspiracy theorist and political candidate. A dentist, lawyer, and former real estate agent, Taitz was a figure in the "birther" movement, which promoted the conspiracy theory that Barack Obama was not a natural-born citizen eligible to serve as president of the United States. Taitz also promotes other conspiracy theories both related and unrelated to Obama. Taitz has initiated lawsuits on behalf of the "birther" movement; all were dismissed by the courts, and on one occasion Taitz was ordered to pay $20,000 as a sanction for misconduct in filing frivolous claims. Taitz has unsuccessfully run in statewide elections in California three times.

Early life and immigration

Taitz was born to a Jewish family in Kishinev, Moldavian SSR, in the Soviet Union (present-day Moldova). Both of her parents were science teachers. In 1981, Taitz immigrated to Israel, where she obtained a dentistry degree at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. In 1987, she met Yosef Taitz who proposed four months later. Taitz immigrated to the United States in May 1987, marrying the Latvian-born Yosef in Las Vegas. Taitz became a naturalized United States citizen in 1992. She received her law degree from Taft Law School and was admitted to practice law in California in December 2002.

Taitz lives in Laguna Niguel, California, and owns dental practices in nearby Mission Viejo and Rancho Santa Margarita. She has three sons, holds a second degree black belt in Taekwondo, and speaks five languages:

English, Hebrew, Romanian or Moldovan (which are two different names for the exact same language though in her homeland "Romanian" and "Moldovan" are sometimes considered different languages for political reasons), Russian, and Spanish.

Before her national news exposure, Taitz was quoted in The Orange County Register in 2006 supporting Israeli military actions against Hamas and Hezbollah, and downplaying the impact of the espionage trial of two American Israel Public Affairs Committee staffers. (Charges against both were subsequently dropped.) Taitz has also said that she lost relatives in the Holocaust and that her grandmother witnessed the Kishinev pogrom.

Activities

Taitz's claims regarding President Obama

Main article: Barack Obama citizenship conspiracy theories

Taitz claimed that U.S. president Obama was not a natural-born citizen of the United States and was therefore ineligible to serve as president. She claimed he was born in Kenya and that he falsified his Selective Service papers and his application to the Illinois bar.

Taitz made other claims against Obama, including:

- That a number of homosexuals from Obama's former church have died mysteriously.
- That Obama had dozens of Social Security numbers, and his passport was inaccurate. Taitz claimed that a person who was cooperating with the FBI in connection with Obama's passport died mysteriously, "shot in the head".
- That a Kenyan birth certificate with the name "Barack Obama" is authentic.
- That Obama's first act as president was to donate money to Hamas, which she claims will be used to build Qassam rockets.
- That Obama, or someone connected to him, has made threats to Taitz's life and vandalized her car.
- The FEMA camps conspiracy theory: Obama is having the Federal Emergency Management Agency build internment camps for "Anti-Obama dissidents".
- That Osama bin Laden was killed years before 2011 when he actually died, with his body kept on ice, and the announcement of his death was timed to divert attention from an upcoming court case she was litigating challenging Obama's citizenship.
- Claims about the Sandy Hook Elementary School shooting conspiracy theories: Taitz blamed Obama for the Sandy Hook Elementary School shooting, writing on her website, "Was Adam Lanza drugged and hypnotised by his handlers to make him into a killing machine as an excuse as the regime is itching to take all means of self defense from the populace before the economic collapse?"

The faked SSN matter is important

I Edward Paul Donegan assert in Los Angeles 1961 November 18 November 19 a possible reserved SSN 022-46-3234 was taken in between my brother and I of 32 and 35. This is likely comfirmanle with no effort by serious investigators of serious issues and while not fully despositive it adds support to MKULTRA Birther.

Inquiry into it will show deep metastasized corruption threatening all of the USA and world.

Wayne Madsen who showed the CIA created and groomed Barrack Obama Jr for use by the CIA in plan hatched long before Obama JR himself was and without naming directly Barrack Obama Jr who was born in 1961 Col Fletcher Prouty talks about V.P. Nixon under Eisenhower and Rockefeller (who lost a son in Indonesia in the Kennedy Administration) had plans for Indonesia the he (Prouty) V.P. Nixon, Dulles, USAF Charles Cabell, and others had underway in 1958 even before JFK ran for and than one the presidency, defeating is GOP opponent sitting V.P. Richard Nixon.

In The Manufacturing of a President by Wayne Madsen he says "This book covers Barack H. Obama, Jr's rapid rise in American politics and the role that the CIA played in propelling him into the White House.

Research is based on formerly classified CIA and State Department files, personal interviews, and international investigations.

"Obama's birth certificate has never been the issue. The real issue, which affects his eligibility to serve as President of the United States, is his past and likely current Indonesian citizenship. The reader will be taken through the labyrinth of covert CIA operations in Africa, Southeast Asia, South Asia, and other regions. The real history of President Obama, his family, and the CIA quickly emerges as the reader wades into the murky waters of America's covert foreign operations". Source: Publisher

The Story of Obama. All in The Company (Part I) by Wayne Madsen Investigative journalist Wayne Madsen has discovered CIA files that document the agency's connections to institutions and individuals figuring prominently in the lives of Barack Obama and his mother, father, grandmother, and stepfather. The first part of his report highlights the connections between Barack Obama, Sr. and the CIA-sponsored operations in Kenya to counter rising Soviet and Chinese influence among student circles and, beyond, to create conditions obstructing the emergence of independent African leaders. [The plan for Obama in Indonesia was known to have started per Col Prouty in 1958 under V.P. Nixon using the USAF that he Prouty was a part of in the CIA plan.

The Disqualifications for Office were in USA Born George H.W. Bush, LBJ and others in league with England for unconstitutional plans included assassinating JKF and RFK, Becoming Elected afterwards, and grooming successor Barrack Obama Jr and others and then naming the DOJ building the RFK building

Ed Donegan asserts that looking at the issue as a whole fabric, the real SSN hidden and no one but Ed Donegan suspects, and cover-up being worse than the original matter create the spreading malignancy

Among st the painstaking research and legal activities of Dr. Taitz's work was producing this to the Courts. Interestingly Paul Edward Irey of the USAF typographer 1950s may have as stated have personal knowledge of the faking of Barrack Obama identity back in the lead-up to 1961 working for Dulles, Bissle Jr., and other for forgeries.

AFFIDAVIT STATE OF FLORTDA COUNTY oF PALM BEACH) Sworn Statement of Paul Edward Irey

I, Paul Edward Irey, being duly sworn, depose and say under penalty of perjury:

1. I am over the age of 18 years old, am a resident of Florida located at Delray Beach and have been previously accepted by the courts as an expert witness and have testified as such expert to the information contained in this affidavit is based on my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness, I could testify completely thereto.

2. I have 57 years experience in graphics. first in serving with the U.S. Air Force being trained as a clerk typist, two of those years with the National Security Agency for which I had a Top Secret security clearance during the years 1957 and 1958.

[very interesting his USAF 1957 and 1958 background. Friend of Prouty or James Paul Donegan or Richard Bissle Jr. 1958 V.P. Nixon Indonesia?]

3. Following that I was employed in Manhattan, New York on the art staff of the Hearst trade journal American Druggist. I was employed at various advertising agencies in Manhattan until 1968 when I started my own business in Ft. Lee, New Jersey named Bergen Graphics.

4, By the mid seventies I employed 60 people as graphic artists, typesetters, camera and darkroom workers doing pre-press services for major retail and printing firms in the New York city area such as Montgomery Ward Catalogs and weekly newspaper ads nationwide, Acme markets newspaper ads for the entire supermarket chain in the northeast, Hearst Blue Book Auto Repair manuals, Key Food Stores of New York and Long lsland, Diana stores, Great Eastern Stores, Finest Supermarkets, Hills Supermarkets, Grand Union Supermarkets, etc.

In addition to overall knowledge of typography,Photography, four-colorstripping and all facets of film preparation for offset'printing, I have 26 years experience in desktop publishing with Macintosh Computers since their inception and have used Adobe Photoshop and Adobe lllustrator on a daily basis since their inceptions in 1987 and 1989.

The first Exhibit "A" annexed herewith is a page from a recent issue of my latest graphic production was published by the the Washington Times weekly edition that contains much of the evidence that lwill explain in this affidavit.

I prepared and wrote this full page shown as Exhibit A myself and attest that the evidence contained therein is accurate and represents evidence of forgery of what on 27 April at the Press Conference presentation by White house Consel Bob Bauer, While Press Secretary Jay Carney and Barack Obama himself allege is Obama's long form birth certificate.

8. The actual document I used for examination of the Obama birth certificateis described in the following chain of evidence contained in Exhibit'8" ... page 1 & 2 & 3 anneexed herewith, and

9. That shown as Exhibit "8" page 1 and 2 is the proof of purchase of a 14" x 16" reproduction print from Associated Press through their division called "Replay Photos" that sells photographic items from their news service and that shown as Exhibit "8" page 3 is a copy of that page purchased as a true and accurate copy of what the ASSOCIATED Press acquired from the White House at the news conference on the morning of 27 April 2011.

10. Shown below is an enlarged section of the Obama long form birth certificate that was released online at whitehouse.gov on27 April 2011. No admission has been made as to who actually scanned and converted this to an Adobe Acrobat PDF file and posted it on the official White House website. It is not known if it was someone at the White House or someone at the Honolulu department of health that had previously provided two copies of Obama's birth certificate that were hand-carried from Hawaii to the White House.

The important feature to observe is that everything in black is outlined in white. This will be referred to as "The White Halo".

Given that this is the normal procedure, I see no reason for the white halo. I have seen many other birth certificates from Honolulu in the year and a half that I have spend examining this issue of forgery, and can attest that none of those other birth certificates from Hawaii had a white halo.

The Honolulu dept. of health alleges that the procedure for making copies of birth certificates is to take the binder where the birth certificates are stored and open it up to the one they copy, place it face down on an ordinary copy machine and simply copy the document to green security paper instead of white paper.

11. Shown below is what we should have seen if the birth certificate original form was actually copied to the green security paper and we would see no white halo. Copiers do not print white, which is the only way white could be seen anywhere over this green security paper. I was able to purchase this special paper on the internet. The green color and hash marks are dye printed through to the other side. ln other words the paper is green on both sides and there is no white anywhere.

15. The first picture at the bottom left is a section of the original PDF file released on whitehouse.gov on 27 April 2012. lt represents the color appearance we have been looking at for 1 1/2 years. The middle picture at the bottom center is a section of the document sent to the attorneys for the Mississippi Democratic Party in Taitz et al v. Democratic Party of Mississippi No. 3:12-cv-00280-HWT-LRA (S.D. Miss.) See attachment "C", the letter from the registrar of births for the state of Hawaii, Alvin Onaka.

It is my understanding and belief that Attorney Tepper requested a confirmation from the director of the Honolulu Dept. of Health, Lorretta Fuddy, that the PDF file released on whitehouse.org on April 27 , 2011 came from their office and Loretta Fuddy passed it on to Alvin Onaka who replied to Tepper with letter "C". Tepper passed that on to Begley. Begley, who is a MS lawyer, filed it with the court, along with the altered PDF file that we must assume came from Onaka. The bottom right picture is my example to show the result of the specific settings needed to match the alterations seen in the center photograph. These settings are seen in the 3 boxes at the right that resulted in my own match of Onaka's effort to change the evidence. My conclusion is that the PDF file was altered to eliminate the white halo by actions taken at the Honolulu Dept. of Health so as to hide the error that proves manipulation by a computer process not available in 1961, and otherwise represents proof of forgery,if not altered.

That I, Paul Edward Irey, am willing to testify as an expert witness to the accuracy of every statement above in any venue permissible as the same is true to my own knowledge, except as to the matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief, and as to those matters I believe it to be true. The grounds of my beliefs as to all matters not stated upon information and belief are as follows: 3rd parties, books and records, and personal knowledge.

The Story of Obama: All in The Company (Part I and II) by Wayne Madsen

Investigative journalist Wayne Madsen has discovered CIA files that document the agency's connections to institutions and individuals figuring prominently in the lives of Barack Obama and his mother, father, grandmother, and stepfather. The first part of his report highlights the connections between Barack Obama, Sr. and the CIA-sponsored operations in Kenya to counter rising Soviet and Chinese influence among student circles and, beyond, to create conditions obstructing the emergence of independent African leaders.

This confirms the article by Col Prouty on Indonesia and Vice President Nixon 1958.]

In Part I of this WMR special report, we revealed the connections between Barack Obama, Sr. and the CIA-affiliated Airlift Africa project to provide college degrees to and gain influence over a group of 280 eastern and southern African students from soon-to-be independent African nations to counter similar programs established by the Soviet Union and China. Barack Obama Sr. was the first African student to attend the University of Hawaii. Obama Sr. and Obama's mother Stanley Ann Dunham met in a Russian language class in 1959 and they married in 1961.

The African airlift program was administered by Kenyan nationalist leader Tom Mboya, a fellow Luo tribe mentor and friend of the senior Obama. According to CIA documents described in Part I, Mboya also served the CIA in ensuring that pro-Soviet and pro-Chinese African nationalists were stymied in their attempt to dominate pan-African nationalist political, student, and labor movements.

One of Mboya's chief opponents was Ghana's first president, Kwame Nkrumah, who was ousted in a CIA-inspired coup in 1966, one year before to Obama Sr's son, Barack Obama, Jr. and his mother joined Lolo Soetoro, an Indonesian who Obama's mother met at the University of Hawaii in 1965, when President Obama was four years old.

In 1967, Obama and his mother joined her husband in Jakarta. In 1965, Lolo Soetoro had been called back from Hawaii by General Suharto to serve as an officer in the Indonesian military to help launch a bloody CIA-backed genocide of Indonesian Communists and Indonesian Chinese throughout the expansive country. Suharto consolidated his power in 1966, the same year that Barack Obama, Sr.'s friend, Mboya, had helped to rally pro-U.S. pan-African support for the CIA's overthrow of Nkrumah in Ghana in 1966.

CIA links East-West Center, University of Hawaii, and CIA coup against Sukarno and Peace Corps and USAID are listed in the two part articles

Ann Dunham met Soetoro at the East-West Center at the University of Hawaii. The center had long been affiliated with CIA activities in the Asia-Pacific region. In 1965, the year that Dunham met and married Soetoro, the center saw a new chancellor take over. He was Howard P. Jones who served a record seven years, from 1958 to 1965, as U.S. ambassador to Indonesia. Jones was present in Jakarta as Suharto and his CIA-backed military officers planned the 1965 overthrow of Sukarno, who was seen, along with the Indonesian Communist Party (PKI), as allies of China.

When Jones was chancellor of the East-West Center, he wrote an article for the Washington Post, dated October 10, 1965, in which he defended Suharto's overthrow of Sukarno. Jones was "invited" by the Post to comment on the Suharto coup, described as a "counter-coup" against the Communists. Jones charged that Suharto was merely responding to an earlier attempted Communist-led coup against Sukarno launched by Lt. Col. Untung, "a relatively unknown battalion commander in the palace guard."

Jones's article, which mirrored CIA situation reports from the U.S. embassy in Jakarta, continued by stating that the alleged leftist coup on September 30 "came within an inch of succeeding through the assassination of six of the top military command. It might well have succeeded had not Defense Minister Nasution and a number of other senior generals also marked for assassination acted fast in a dramatic counter-coup." Of course, what Jones did not inform the Post's readers was that the Suharto "counter-coup" had been assisted with the strong help of the CIA.

We know James Angleton went to grade school in England, acquired an English accent, and by adulthood was in elite and espionage circles he was born intom his father freinds of American OSS and CIA already who also were British leaning.

Angleton's boyhood was spent in Milan, Italy. He studied as a boarder at Malvern College in England before attending Yale University. As a Yale undergraduate, Angleton edited the Yale literary magazine Furioso with Reed Whittemore.

British Psychiatry: From Eugenics to Assassination by Anton Chaitkin and other works mostly tying all of this to Bush and Rockefeller and Rotschilds.

The question of sponsorship

But the authorship of this enterprise cannot reasonably be assigned to the CIA, per se. Even before we review other agencies' direct involvement, we must understand that the CIA chief during MK-Ultra, Allen Dulles, was thoroughly attached to British Empire geopolitical aims. Introduced to British spies by his uncle Robert Lansing, Woodrow Wilson's secretary of state, Dulles had had a strong personal identification since childhood with the British Secret Intelligence Service.

The Dulles family's upper class-status in America began when ancestor William Dulles arrived in South Carolina from India. With a fortune made in India by providing financial and security services for the British East India Company army, he bought a slave plantation which the family held through the American Civil War. The family's mental life was always that of the British Empire and its American colonial subordinates. Allen Dulles's main corporate activity was as a director of the J. Henry Schroder banking company in London, a prime instrument in Montagu Norman's nazification of Germany. As partners in the Sullivan and Cromwell firm, Allen Dulles and his brother John Foster Dulles represented the Rockefeller-Harriman-Warburg combination, I.G. Farben, and virtully every other Nazi corporate organization that danced on London's marionette strings.

My (Edward Paul Donegan's) assertion is that as CIA Subversion and Overthrow the George H.W. Bush team (that the Donegan family freind Prouty suspects according to the CIA citing operation Zapata and the Barbara boat at Bay of Pigs) and Cheney were involved in grooming Obama as an adopeted orphan. On the first REAL birthday of November 19 (on the birth certificate but born November 18) Cheney is approaced for the second or first time under some kind of ruse. He and his daughter and father part of USAID the CIA was using from generation to generation according to now declassified CIA files Wayne Madsen has.

The Curious Matters of Obama Family Values

If patriotism is the Hallmark of the CIA the Obama family has been walking those hallways for generations. Alleged grandmother Madelyn was a CIA operative in Hawaii, the white mother of Obama Jr. as entered into the Hawaii Birth Certificate seems improbable. Compound that with questions about the truthful background as to Michelle Obama although knee-jerk anger is the trained reaction to such well founded questions researchers look into.

Said to be biological Grandparents

The questions in these questions go to birth certificate information. When was Barrack Obama Jr. born, where was he born, and who were his parents? Was this a disguised out-of-wedlock birth, in the USA and a live birth but a surrogate birth the CIA was testing with CIA families connected to his birth? If one or two birth certicates are questionable and the SSN is questionable is there an undiscovred real one?? In Los Angeles County November 19, 1961?

Stanley Armour Dunham (Boeing, CIA) and Madelyn Payne Dunham (Bank of Hawaii CIA)

CIA Cover Story Barack Obama Grandparents Stanley Armour Dunham (March 23, 1918 - February 8, 1992) was the maternal grandfather of the 44th U.S. President Barack Obama. He and his wife Madelyn Payne Dunham raised Obama from the age of 10 in Honolulu, Hawaii.

In 1959 Richard Nixon [Libary Meetings with Rockefeller Standard Oil about Mid East North Africa MENA) was approaching oilmen like George Walker Bush and Jack Crichton to help fund Operation 40. We also have the claim of Frank Sturgis that "this assassination group (Operation 40) would upon orders, naturally, assassinate either members of the military or the political parties of the foreign country that you were going to infiltrate, and if necessary some of your own members who were suspected of being foreign agents." *

Ponca City was a thriving community in the late 1940's when Madelyn Dunham arrived in Ponca City with her husband and her five year old daughter Stanley Ann Dunham. Ponca City was the headquarters for Continental Oil Company (Conoco) and had a huge refinery at Ponca City employing thousands. This is a photo of the Conoco Headquarters in Ponca City at the time Madelyn Dunham and her family moved to Ponca City. Photo: Unknown

War and Post-War Activities

Dan Nakaso reports in USA today that Madelyn Dunham attended college at the University of Washington before becoming an aircraft inspector for Boeing during World War II. "She was from the part of the country where a girl sets out to be a wife and a mother and ends up building airplanes for the war effort," said Alice Dewey, University of Hawai'i anthropology professor emeritus, who was Ann Dunham's graduate studies adviser and became a family friend. Bill Meyer writes that while Dunham was in the army during World War II moving from base to base, Madelyn went back home with her daughter.r. She landed a job on the night shift at the Boeing plant 15 miles down Highway 54 in Wichita, commuting each day. Madelyn was a supervisor on the B-29 bomber assembly line. She wasn't exactly "Rosie the Riveter" -- more like "Rosie the Quality-Control Inspector."r.

Dewey described Madelyn Dunham as "a bit shy, not a chatty kind of person. But she had decided opinions on whatever we were talking about, which was often political. She would get information and have an opinion and tell you why. ... She was always very affectionate with Ann and with Barry."

During World War II, while Stanley Dunham served in the Army. Madelyn worked on a Boeing B-29 assembly line in Wichita. Her brother Charlie Payne was part of the 89th Infantry Division, which liberated the Nazi concentration camp at Ohrdruf, a subcamp of Buchenwald, a fact Barack Obama has referred to in speeches.

After the war the family started out in El Dorado, Kansas, where Stanley had managed a furniture store and Madelyn worked in restaurants. Then the family moved to California where Stanley attended UC-Berkeley on the GI Bill. Madelyn also attended some classes at UC-Berkeley.

Life in Ponca City

Barack Obama's grandmother, Madelyn Dunham, was 26 years old in 1948 when she arrived in Ponca City. Ponca City was a thriving community in the late 1940's when Stanley Dunham and his family arrived in Ponca City. Ponca City was the headquarters for Continental Oil Company (Conoco) and had a huge refinery at Ponca City employing thousands. It is not yet known if Madelyn Dunham worked outside the home but it is documented that in other places she lived like Wichita, Seattle, and Honolulu, Madelyn worked outside the house so it is very possible that with her daughter Stanley Ann in school, Madelyn Dunham had a job outside the house while she was living in Ponca City.

If Madelyn Dunham did have a job while her husband worked at Jay Paris Furniture and her daughter attended elementary school, no one has yet come forward who knew her or remembered her working outside the house. Madelyn Dunham had strong administrative skills as evidenced by her work during the war when she worked as a quality control inspector for an assembly line building B-29's in Wichita.

Here is what we can conjecture about Madelyn Dunham's employment in Ponca City. Later on in her life Madelyn Dunham worked as an escrow officer at a bank and was later vice-president of a bank in Washington State, so if she worked outside the home while she was living in Ponca City, it is possible that she may have been at a bank. Banks that were open in Ponca City at that time would include the First National Bank, the First Security Bank, and Ponca City Savings and Loan, so we conjecture that with her daughter in school, Madelyn Dunham may have worked at one of these banks.

Some say it is possible that with her experience as a quality control inspector during the war, she may have found work at Continental Oil Company or Cities Service while she lived in Ponca City. Others say that as a woman without a college education in the late 1940's, many doors were closed to her that might be open today. Anyone who may have known or worked with Madelyn Dunham in the late 1940's or early 1950's at any of these locations, please contact us at 580-765-6125 so we can update this story.

Dan Moran (1888–1948, led company 1928–1947), who succeeded Marland Oil Company founder E. W. Marland as president of Marland Oil in 1928, and subsequently became the first president of the merged Conoco. Moran then ran Conoco for twenty years, seeing the company through economic hardships and challenges of the Great Depression of the 1930s, and retiring in 1947, the year before he died.[15] The company ran into early trouble when, shortly after acquisition, it was hit by the Great New York Stock Market Crash of October 1929. Conoco became a key supplier to the United States federal government and its world-wide deployment of the United States Armed Forces, along with several other Allied powers and their militaries during the Second World War (1939/1941-1945). - https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Conoco

Miscarriage in Ponca City

Some believe the said mother of Barrack Obama Jr. Stanley Anne Dunham was in fact a Rockefeller relative and her likeness was used by the CIA to create a fictional character.

David Remnick reports in his book, "The Bridge," that according to Madelyn Dunham's friend Francine Pummill, Madelyn Dunham had a miscarriage and a hysterectomy while the family was living in Ponca City and so Stanley Ann remained an only child. It is not definitely known in what hospital Madalyn Dunham received her treatment, but in 1948 before the advent of Interstate I-35 it was a long, difficult drive to the nearest large cities (Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Wichita) and so we think that Madelyn Dunham was treated at St. Joseph Regional Medical Center in Ponca City. St. Jospeh's (later renamed Via Christi Oklahoma Regional Medical Center) is a Catholic, not-for-profit, hospital that served the healthcare needs of Ponca City, north central Oklahoma and south central Kansas from 1919. In 1948 St. Jospeh's had approximately 50 beds.

Washington State and Hawaii

In 1951 the Dunham family left Ponca City. Dan Nakaso reports in USA Today that Madelyn Dunham "blazed a feminist trail in Hawaii banking circles in the late 1960s and early 1970s and rose to become one of the Bank of Hawaii's first female vice presidents." "Was she ambitious? She had to be to become a vice president," said Clifford Y.J. Kong, 82, who was a senior credit officer at the bank at the time. "She was a top-notch executive to get appointed. It was a tough world."

Dunham rose from the secretarial pool to be a Bank of Hawaii vice president. Current and former Bank of Hawaii executives remember Madelyn Dunham as a tough boss with a soft side for those willing to work hard. "The first day I met her, I was totally scared," said Dennis Ching, who was a 23-year-old management trainee under Dunham beginning in 1966. "She was the Grande Dame of escrow who started the local escrow association. I was just a trainee who didn't know anything about escrow whatsoever. But she gave me a file and said, 'You're a college grad. Here, close this.' You don't know how to swim, and she throws you in, and you either sink or swim."

Hawaii State Senator Sam Slom worked in economics and business research for Bankoh while Dunham was rising to the position of vice president, and also lived one floor beneath Dunham and Obama in the Punahou Circle Apartments. "Anybody who worked with her or for her for any period of time had to be impressed with her professionalism and dedication," says Slom.v "She was just from the old school: Work hard, give a full day's work for a full day's pay. She inculcated that with anybody that came in contact with her. She didn't share or tell jokes or light moments. Her whole life was business. Nobody doubted her integrity or her honesty. She never tried to do the right things or say the right things for personal advancement. She did them because she believed in them. She was quoted as saying Stanley wears the pants. But no one who knew her would believe that. She was clearly in charge."

"Madelyn was the salt of the earth. She was a wonderful person to have working for you because she always kept you out of trouble, made the boss look good," said Howard Stephenson, the man who hired Dunham. Dunham was considered by many as the founder of the escrow business in Hawaii. Title Guaranty President David Pietsch called her the "dean" of escrow and remembers testifying with her at the Legislature. Pietsch remembered seeing Obama as a child. "I just remember seeing this young boy walking around the bank at the end of the day waiting for his grandmother," said Pietsch.

"I shall always, always in my mind and in my heart remember Madelyn as a wonderful friend with a great sense of humor and a very caring person. I will miss you Madelyn," said Helen Osgood, Bank of Hawaii co-worker.

Hawaii's U.S. Representative Mazie Hirono credits Dunham for deeply influencing not only Obama, but also for making her what she is today. Right after she graduated from the University of Hawaii, Hirono worked at the Bank of Hawaii for Dunham as a temporary employee. "She reinforced in me this idea that you can do a lot of things as a woman if you are focused," Hirono said.

Helps Raise Barack Obama

Young Barack Obama was born on Aug. 4, 1961. When his father left Hawaii to pursue his education, Barry and his mother stayed behind. Aside from a four-year interlude during which he lived in Indonesia with his mother and stepfather, Obama spent his childhood in Honolulu -- most of it in his grandparents' two-bedroom, high-rise apartment at 1617 S. Beretania St. Obama writes fondly of looking up from the basketball court to find his grandmother, affectionately called "Toot," watching him practice from the 10th-floor window and has vivid memories of his grandmother heading to the office. "Every morning, she woke up at five a.m. and changed from the frowsy muu-muus (sic) she wore around the apartment into a tailored suit and high-heeled pumps," Obamawrites. Obama says Toot took a secretarial job at Bank of Hawaii "to help defray the costs of my unexpected birth."

After the Obama marriage fell apart, Barack Obama spent four years with his mother and her second husband in Jakarta, Indonesia but returned to the United States in 1971 at age 10 to live with his maternal grandparents in the Makiki district of Honolulu and enrolled in the fifth grade at the Punahou School. Obama's mother eventually earned a Ph.D. in anthropology and went on to be employed on development projects in Indonesia and around the world helping impoverished women obtain microfinance. She returned to Indonesia in 1977 for her Masters' fieldwork and Obama stayed in the United States with his grandparents. Obama writes in his memoir, Dreams From My Father, "I'd arrived at an unspoken pact with my grandparents: I could live with them and they'd leave me alone so long as I kept my trouble out of sight."

Madelyn Dunham took Obama on his first tour of the contiguous United States, traveling by Greyhound bus and stopping at Howard Johnson's along the way. Madelyn showed Obama the Grand Canyon, Yellowstone, Disneyland and, finally, Chicago -- the city where he would hone his skills as a community organizer, meet his future wife and launch his political career. Obama's sister, Maya Soetoro-Ng, says many of the qualities that got Obama this far came from Toot. "From our grandmother, he gets his pragmatism, his levelheadedness, his ability to stay centered in the eye of the storm," Soetoro-Ng told The Associated Press. "His sensible, no-nonsense (side) is inherited from her."

In "Dreams," Obama describes his grandparents as "vaguely liberal." He recounts an incident in which his grandmother was upbraided for addressing a black janitor, a World War II veteran, as "Mr. Reed." Despite the warning, she continued to use the honorific. "'Your grandfather and I just figured we should treat people decently, Bar,'" he remembers her telling him. "She's wise that way, my grandmother, suspicious of overwrought sentiments or overblown claims, content with common sense." But it was another incident, one to which he was a party, that had a most profound effect on the biracial teenager. Toot had asked her husband for a ride to work because a particularly aggressive panhandler had accosted her for money the day before. When Stanley refused, his grandson couldn't understand why. "She's been bothered by men before," his grandfather explained, according to the memoir. "Before you came in, she told me the fella was black. That's the real reason why she's bothered." Obama described the words as "like a fist in my stomach." It was a life-changing moment for him. Charles Payne says his sister's response to the reference was "like, 'Oh, well.'" But his reaction was that Obama shouldn't have shared that anecdote. "She was really a very liberal person; liberal in politics and, I think, liberal in thinking," says the brother, who has worked hard on his great-nephew's campaign. "Frankly ... that story, when it was in the book, I felt didn't need to be in there."

Retirement

After Madelyn Dunham retired from Bankoh in 1986, she didn't just sit back. Over the years she's worked for various charitable organizations. She did volunteer at the local library, as well as the Oahu Circuit Court, where she served as a court observer, probate aide and arbitrator for the Juvenile Monetary Restitution Program. Madelyn Dunham loved to play bridge. "When Stanley was still alive, they would go on cruises around the islands and they'd do nothing but play bridge," says brother Jack. "She and Stanley were vicious bridge players." When Stanley died in 1992, she continued to play, as many as six days a week. Until a few years ago, when failing eyesight and osteoporosis got the better of her, she would go to the brick recreation center at the Ala Wai Community Park near Waikiki to play duplicate bridge with the Honolulu Seniors.

Battle with Cancer

Obama left the campaign trail at a crucial time just two weeks before the election to spend time with his grandmother. "Her body is not in great shape she has osteoporosis which means she can't travel. She can't sit for a long periods of time on the plane so that's why it is so important for me to take these trips back to Hawaii," Obama said. "She has been frail for quite sometime now."

"She was a very determined person as you began to get to know her she knew her mind and followed her principles," said University of Hawaii professor Alice Dewey, a longtime friend of the Obamas. ""She probably stayed on his case make him tow the line and behave himself with the best of intentions and great affection for him." Obama's decision to be at her side in her time of need does not surprise those who know him. "The whole family is quite special," Dewey said.

Friends said Obama's urgency to get back to Hawaii to visit his grandmother could be fueled by one of his greatest regrets which is not being in Hawaii for the death of his mother, Ann Dunham, who died at age 52 of ovarian cancer. Obama said he did not want to make the same mistake twice. "One of the things I wanted to have a chance to sit down with her and talk to her. She's still alert and she still has all the faculties and I wanted to make sure that I don't miss that opportunity right now," Obama told ABC's "Good Morning America" before he left for the islands.

In 2008 Madelyn Dunham died at age 86 after a battle with cancer. Madelyn died on November 2, 2008, the day before Barack Obama's election as President. "She died peacefully in her sleep with my sister at her side, so there's great joy instead of tears," said Barack Obama. "She was one of those quiet heroes that we have all across America. They're not famous. Their names are not in the newspapers, but each and every day they work hard."

Is Obama the secret son of Malcolm X?

"Obama Senior was murdered in Kenya in 1982 to silence him. Interesting story re his sister Auma as well - she appears to be a full sister, not a half-sister as he is claiming, i.e. they share the same mother. She was ordered back to Kenya in 2007 to prevent DNA testing …. CIA did a DNA test on the grandparents, using saliva from glasses, which conclusively rules out any relationship between Obama and the Dunhams."

"The source said that the Dunham family became involved because Stanley Dunham, Sr. was suspected of espionage. Boeing, he said, has "a 1944 security file on Stanley Dunham in connection with suspected sabotage of B-17G aircraft at their Wichita Kansas plant and the theft of B-29 blueprints, a full set of which were passed to the German Abwehr via Lisbon by June 1944. Ann Dunham appears to have been chosen as the surrogate mother in 1963 because of the family connection to German Intelligence. German assets in the US, including Rezko, who is connected to the Syrian Mukhabarat and the German DVD, sponsored his career.

"Effectively," the source concludes, "Obama is a German sleeper agent."

Madelyn Lee Payne Dunham (/ˈdʌnəm/ DUN-əm; October 26, 1922[1] - November 2, 2008) was the American maternal grandmother of Barack Obama, the 44th President of the United States. She and her husband Stanley Armour Dunham raised Obama from age ten in their Honolulu, Hawaii, apartment, where on November 2, 2008, she died two days before her grandson was elected President.

The Story of Obama: All in The Company (Part I)

by Wayne Madsen

In 1967, Obama and his mother joined her husband in Jakarta. In 1965, Lolo Soetoro had been called back from Hawaii by General Suharto to serve as an officer in the Indonesian military to help launch a bloody CIA-backed genocide of Indonesian Communists and Indonesian Chinese throughout the expansive country. Suharto consolidated his power in 1966, the same year that Barack Obama, Sr.'s friend, Mboya, had helped to rally pro-U.S. pan-African support for the CIA's overthrow of Nkrumah in Ghana in 1966.

President Obama's own work in 1983 for Business International Corporation, a CIA front that conducted seminars with the world's most powerful leaders and used journalists as agents abroad, dovetails with CIA espionage activities conducted by his mother, Stanley Ann Dunham in 1960s post-coup Indonesia on behalf of a number of CIA front operations, including the East-West Center at the University of Hawaii, the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), and the Ford Foundation. Dunham met and married Lolo Soetoro, Obama's stepfather, at the East-West Center in 1965. Soetoro was recalled to Indonesia in 1965 to serve as a senior army officer and assist General Suharto and the CIA in the bloody overthrow of President Sukarno.

Barack Obama, Sr., who met Dunham in 1959 in a Russian language class at the University of Hawaii, had been part of what was described as an airlift of 280 East African students to the United States to attend various colleges - merely "aided" by a grant from the Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation, according to a September 12, 1960, Reuters report from London. The airlift was a CIA operation to train and indoctrinate future agents of influence in Africa, which was becoming a battleground between the United States and the Soviet Union and China for influence among newly-independent and soon-to-be independent countries on the continent.

The airlift was condemned by the deputy leader of the opposition Kenyan African Democratic Union (KADU) as favoring certain tribes - the majority Kikuyus and minority Luos - over other tribes to favor the Kenyan African National Union (KANU), whose leader was Tom Mboya, the Kenyan nationalist and labor leader who selected Obama, Sr. for a scholarship at the University of Hawaii. Obama, Sr., who was already married with an infant son and pregnant wife in Kenya, married Dunham on Maui on February 2, 1961 and was also the university's first African student. Dunham was three month's pregnant with Barack Obama, Jr. at the time of her marriage to Obama, Sr.

KADU deputy leader Masinda Muliro, according to Reuters, said KADU would send a delegation to the United States to investigate Kenyan students who received "gifts" from the Americans and "ensure that further gifts to Kenyan students are administered by people genuinely interested in Kenya's development.'"

The CIA allegedly recruited Tom M'Boya in a heavily funded "selective liberation" programme to isolate Kenya's founding President Jomo Kenyatta, whom the American spy agency labelled as "unsafe." Mboya received a $100,000 grant for the airlift from the Kennedy Foundation after he turned down the same offer from the U.S. State Department, obviously concerned that direct U.S. assistance would look suspicious to pro-Communist Kenyan politicians who suspected Mboya of having CIA ties. The Airlift Africa project was underwritten by the Kennedy Foundation and the African-American Students Foundation. Obama, Sr. was not on the first airlift but a subsequent one. The airlift, organized by Mboya in 1959, included students from Kenya, Uganda, Tanganyika, Zanzibar, Northern Rhodesia, Southern Rhodesia, and Nyasaland.

Reuters also reported that Muliro charged that Africans were "disturbed and embittered" by the airlift of the selected students. Muliro "stated that "preferences were shown to two major tribes [Kikuyu and Luo] and many U.S.-bound students had failed preliminary and common entrance examinations, while some of those left behind held first-class certificates."

CIA-airlifted to Hawaii, Barack Obama Sr., with leis, stands with Stanley Dunham, President Obama's grandfather, on his right. Obama, Sr. was a friend of Mboya and a fellow Luo. After Mboya was assassinated in 1969, Obama, Sr. testified at the trial of his alleged assassin. Obama, Sr. claimed he was the target of a hit-and-run assassination attempt after his testimony.

Obama, Sr., who left Hawaii for Harvard in 1962, divorced Dunham in 1964. Obama, Sr. married a fellow Harvard student, Ruth Niedesand, a Jewish-American woman, who moved with him to Kenya and had two sons. They were later divorced. Obama, Sr. worked for the Kenyan Finance and Transport ministries as well as an oil firm. Obama, Sr. died in a 1982 car crash and his funeral was attended by leading Kenyan politicians, including future Foreign Minister Robert Ouko, who was murdered in 1990.

CIA files indicate that Mboya was an important agent-of-influence for the CIA, not only in Kenya but in all of Africa. A formerly Secret CIA Current Intelligence Weekly Summary, dated November 19, 1959, states that Mboya served as a check on extremists at the second All-African People's Conference (AAPC) in Tunis. The report states that "serious friction developed between Ghana's Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah and Kenyan nationalist Tom Mboya who cooperated effectively last December to check extremists at the AAPC's first meeting in Accra." The term "cooperated effectively" appears to indicate that Mboya was cooperating with the CIA, which filed the report from field operatives in Accra and Tunis. While "cooperating" with the CIA in Accra and Tunis, Mboya selected the father of the president of the United States to receive a scholarship and be airlifted to the University of Hawaii where he met and married President Obama's mother.

An earlier CIA Current Intelligence Weekly Summary, secret, and dated April 3, 1958, states that Mboya "still appears to be the most promising of the African leaders." Another CIA weekly summary, secret and dated December 18, 1958, calls Mboya the Kenyan nationalist an "able and dynamic young chairman" of the People's Convention party who was viewed as an opponent of "extremists" like Nkrumah, supported by "Sino-Soviet representatives."

In a formerly Secret CIA report on the All-Africa Peoples Conference in 1961, dated November 1, 1961, Mboya's conservatism, along with that of Taleb Slim of Tunisia, are contrasted to the leftist policies of Nkrumah and others. Pro-communists who were elected to the AAPC's steering committee at the March 1961 Cairo conference, attended by Mboya, are identified in the report as Abdoulaye Diallo, AAPC Secretary General, of Senegal; Ahmed Bourmendjel of Algeria; Mario de Andrade of Angola; Ntau Mokhele of Basutoland; Kingue Abel of Cameroun; Antoine Kiwewa of Congo (Leopoldville); Kojo Botsio of Ghana; Ismail Toure of Guinea; T. O. Dosomu Johnson of Liberia; Modibo Diallo of Mali; Mahjoub Ben Seddik of Morocco; Djibo Bakari of Niger; Tunji Otegbeya of Nigeria; Kanyama Chiume of Nyasaland; Ali Abdullahi of Somalia; Tennyson Makiwane of South Africa, and Mohamed Fouad Galal of the United Arab Republic.

Well, this is a lot to take in, and on first reading it struck me that the source had been reading too many Le Carre novels or Bond movies. I mean, really: "The Manchurian Candidate" meets "The Boy from Mombassa Kenya"?

It seemed completely preposterous, and indeed I initially dismissed it as preposterous. Obama a "German sleeper agent"? Of course, in those days the East Germans were a Soviet satellite, and the DDR was perhaps the most feared and ideological of the communist states, with more than a sprinkling of rehabilitated Nazis uncured of their genetic fantasies andexperiments. 1961-1963 were the peak years of the Cold War, with Berlin playing a central role in East-West hostilities.

by Reuven Koret, Israel Insider Publisher If Barack Hussein Obama II is Malcolm X's biological son, it would explain the mystery of why he was so generously helped by so many Arab and communist "friends in high places" long before he was a "somebody." Just as Malcolm X adopted Islam, his secret son would also need to learn its ways, and learn the ways of revolution, not just assume an Islamic name. He would need to be groomed and educated to organize the community called the United States of America. by Reuven Koret, Israel Insider Publisher

In August I received a curious email. As a magazine that covers international politics, with a focus on Mideast affairs, Israel Insider gets more from its fair share of baseless tips and phony rumors. I ignore most and delete them unread. This one was a bit different. It came from a national security lawyer with extensive credentials and intelligence connections that checked out, and a phone number.

Israel Insider had been running a series of articles exploring the vagaries of Barack Obama's birth, and his concealed documentation, and this was the jumping off point of the email, which confirmed the claim that Obama was not born in Hawaii, that "Mossad are going with Mombasa" but "Proving Mombasa is not so easy, as NSIS in Nairobi are clamming up tight, as are MI6 in London, who have the original Mombasa file and full details of the birth."

He said that "Disproving Honolulu is child's play. You've already shown that the birth certificate put forward by Obama (whose people privately are not denying Mombasa, by the way) is a fake. Why fake it? If he was born in Honolulu he could obtain a genuine one. Hawaii Dept of Health would hardly denounce a potential presidential candidate's birth certificate as fraudulent without cross-checking birth records for August 1961. No birth was registered in the name of Obama in Honolulu in August 1961." (This last detail may explain why Hawaiian officials last Friday confirmed that a birth certificate does indeed exist but conspicuously refused to release any details or even confirm that the details conform to those on the computer-generated Certification of Live Birth.

The name on the “original” certificate may in fact not be Obama nor the birthplace Honolulu. But Obama’s recent visit “to his grandmother” may well have had less to do with her health than eliciting this vague and inconclusive statement from the Hawaiian Health Department.) The source continues: “There is no evidence Ann Dunham had even met Obama Senior in or around November 1960, the alleged time of conception, indeed it is not even clear Obama was in Honolulu at that time, although he may have been. Ann Dunham was only 17 and although she might have been in Honolulu the timing is tight.”

“More to the point, she was in neither of the medical centers put forward by the Obama campaign (question: why do they not know in which hospital he was born?) on August 4th, nor are there medical records to back up the claimed birth, nor has an attending physician been named. I’ve heard of births with the father absent, births with the mother absent a bit trickier.”

“There are said to be photos of Ann Dunham on Waikiki Beach taken in or about July 1961 (near August 1961), when she is supposed to have been in her third trimester, in a bikini, taken by a fellow female student. Alleged white Seattle mother of Barack Obama (CIA, USAID, Peace Corps, East West foundation activities)

Said to be Obama white mother Stanley Ann Dunham (November 29, 1942 November 7, 1995) was an American anthropologist who specialized in the economic anthropology and rural development of Indonesia.[1] She was the mother of Barack Obama, the 44th President of the United States. Dunham was known as Stanley Ann Dunham through high school, then as Ann Dunham, Ann Obama, Ann Soetoro, Ann Sutoro and finally after her second divorce as Ann Dunham.[2]

Born in Wichita, Kansas (where Boeing Bombers were built for WWII), Dunham studied at the East-West Center and at the University of Hawaii (all MKULTRA) at Mano in Honolulu, where she attained a bachelor of arts degree in anthropology (1967), and later received master of arts (1974) and PhD (1992) degrees, also in anthropology. She also attended University of Washington at Seattle in 1961-1962 (and had Barrack Obama Jr with her when JFK visited and the 21st Century Expo was held with the Windors family visiting April 1962.) Interested in craftsmanship, weaving, and the role of women in cottage industries, Dunham's research focused on women's work on the island of Java and blacksmithing in Indonesia.

To address the problem of poverty in rural villages, she created microcredit programs while working as a consultant for the United States Agency for International Development (USAID).

Dunham was also employed by the Ford Foundation in Jakarta and she consulted with the Asian Development Bank in Gujranwala, Pakistan. Towards the latter part of her life, she worked with Bank Rakyat Indonesia, where she helped apply her research to the largest microfinance program in the world.[4]
